

Notice to Contributors

- 1) This journal is an unaffiliated, open periodical. We welcome articles of historical research of approximately 30,000 characters in length, scholarly debates of 10,000 characters, and book reviews of 4,500 characters.
- 2) Submissions should include the author's name (in both Chinese and Romanization), professional affiliation (in both Chinese and English), mailing address, phone number, fax number, and e-mail address, and either be emailed to newhistory1990@yahoo.com.tw, or a hard copy sent to the New History Editor, P.O. BOX 1-44 Nangang, Taipei City, Taiwan. Submissions should not be under consideration for publication elsewhere.
- 3) Once an article undergoes review and is accepted, the author will receive a letter of acceptance. Publication will be timed to accommodate our work schedule (for example, taking into account special issues, related articles, and the length of articles). If an article must be published within a certain time frame, please do not submit it.
- 4) Articles should be written according to New History's style sheet, with their titles given in both Chinese and English. Both original research articles and scholarly debates must append keywords and abstracts in Chinese and English, and we require a bibliography of referenced works at the end of articles and debates. Chinese book reviews must add name of the author and book title in English.
- 5) All articles first undergo blind refereeing, and are then reviewed by our Administrative Editorial Board.
- 6) This journal is composed on computer, and submissions should include a standard Chinese type MS-Word electronic file.
- 7) We are not responsible for copyright of materials (e.g., photos, graphs, tables, and long quotations). The author must ask the agreement of the copyright owner. If they are not directly relevant to the article, photos are in principle limited to 4 pages or 10 photos. It is the author's responsibility to provide high-definition images to guarantee the quality of the publication.
- 8) All articles (including book reviews) are also published online. If the author only agrees to a hard copy publication, this must be noted at the time of submission. Once a submission been accepted, the author agrees to a "free and non-exclusive authorization" permitting the journal to allow other databases to reproduce articles, and to allow articles to be downloaded, printed, and viewed by authorized users. Reprinting articles needs the journal's agreement (including bound volume).
- 9) Except in special situations, we do not make payments for published works. Authors will receive 50 offprints, 3 current periodicals, and complimentary issues for one year.
