I heard from the doctors here in the US that it is critical to do therapy at an early stage after the stroke. I am not certain what type of therapy program my brother is able to do at this point. However, maybe those who go visit him can massage him and help him to strengthen his muscles, especially on the left side of his body.

Thank you for those who faithfully go visit him.